

Important Questions and Answers of the Chapter The Address for Annual Examinations

Short Answer Type Question

Question 1 Why did the narrator of the story want to forget the address?

Answer At the time of war, the narrator's mother gives her belongings to Mrs. Dorling. But when the narrator visited the address of Mrs. Dorling's house she found her mother's belongings in pitiable condition. This made him oppressed and horrified. All belongings lost her importance so she decided to forget the address.

Question 2 What do you know about the narrator?

Answer The narrator Dutch Jui is a victim of the war in Holland. The narrator is the daughter of Mrs. S. She loses all her precious things in the war. Her nature is progressive and she thinks of the future.

Question 3 What do you know about Mrs. Dorling?

Answer Mrs. Dorling lacks human qualities. Mrs Dorling is clever and ill-mannered. Mrs. Dorling took all the precious possessions to Mrs. S. She uses all the things of Mrs. S like her own. Her behavior toward the narrator is unfriendly.

Question 4 Why does Mrs. S hand over all her possessions to Mrs. Dorling?

Answer Mrs. S is afraid of war so she decided to move somewhere. Mrs. Dorling told her if she moved somewhere she would lose all her nice things. Mrs. Dorling suggests he hand over all her things to him. She assures Mrs. S to keep all things safe.

Question 5 Why did the narrator visit Mrs. Dorling?

Answer When the war was over the narrator became curious about her belongings. She wanted to take them back. She wanted to claim them back so she decided to visit Mrs Dorling.

Long Answer Type Question

Question 1 Give a character sketch of Mrs. Dorling.

Answer Mrs. Dorling was the neighbor of the narrator's mother. She took all the precious things from Mrs. S. she told to Mrs. S that she would preserve them. But when the narrator visits Mrs. Dorling's house she refuses to give the belonging back. Her behavior is cold and unfriendly. She does not even welcome the narrator to his house. It exploits her selfishness and inhuman qualities.

Question 2 What was the purpose of the narrator's visit to Mrs. Dorling?

Answer A Young girl(narrator) was displaced during World War second. When the war ended she went to the address to take all her mother's belongings back which had been handed over to Mrs. Dorling. She wants to revive her memories of the good days. Her mother was lost in the time of the war. She wants all her mother's belongings back so she decides to visit 46, Marconi Street to meet Mrs.Dorling.

Question 3 Describe the narrator, second visit to Mrs Dorling. What was the impact of this visit and her?

Answer When the narrator was disappointed with her first visit, she makes a second visit after some time. This time her fifteen-year-old daughter received her and allowed her to do some in the living room. The narrator recognizes all her things there. The narrator lived in very miserable conditions in her childhood. The real owner of those things Mrs S was no more in the world. So she wanted to forget the address itself forever.